R. Steven Ulmer is the president and CEO of DAVIS-ULMER SPRINKLER CO. He assumed this role in 1988.

Davis-Ulmer was founded in 1946 and is a full service provider of fire sprinkler, suppression, alarm, and security systems through its seven offices serving northeastern United States.

He started his career in 1972 and gained valuable experience working with his grandfather and father. As in every family business, Mr. Ulmer moved through the ranks in all aspects of the company. He was a sprinkler fitter, designer, superintendent, and worked in purchasing and sales.

Mr. Ulmer was named president in 1988. He led the company's expansion when he opened branches in two new markets. In 1996 he further diversified the company's abilities. He added several top fire suppression and alarm brands which brought about the Special Hazard Alarm and Detection division.

Inspection and service work have become the backbone of Mr. Ulmer's vision on the growth for the company. The 2005 acquisition by APi Group allowed Mr. Ulmer the ability to further expand the company with another branch office and through the purchase of W&M Sprinkler Co.

Mr. Ulmer coaches girls fastpitch softball, enjoys golf and has a passion for his hometown teams in Buffalo, N.Y. ♡
